Hikes

Valenciennes, city of artists

You can take the urban route to explore the city and its leisure areas starting from the port.

>> 12km • 3h30mn

The Rhône Valley

This hike offers the opportunity to discover the enchanting countryside of Valenciennes (Aulnoy-lez-Valenciennes, Artres, Famars, Préseau). Start from the "Jules Chevalier" stop of the T1 tram line and take the foot path along the tracks.

>> 13,5km • 3h

Running track

Start from the port 1

A 3.65km route to explore the "Coron des 120" (mining housing estate) and Château Dampierre. You can make a stop on the Valmont Park fitness trail and complete a series of exercises. Return to the port by taking the T1 tram line at the "Anzin Hôtel de Ville" stop.

There are 2 routes for exploring Anzin and its mining heritage which is a listed UNESCO World Heritage site.

Start from the port 2

A 5km route through the "Cité of Mont de la Veine" (mining housing estate) and on the slopes of the spoil heap of Bleuse Borne which dominates the landscape.

Start from the tourist information office (rue Askièvre)

Explore the city centre of Valenciennes (6.2km) using the free app : Runnin' City. Follow the course "Valenciennes with small strides" in the category Smart Run.

Cycling route

The Un'Escaut loop

Starting from the port, this 29km route links Valenciennes to the fortified town of Condé-sur-l'Escaut. Numerous former mining sites listed by UNESCO as World Heritage sites (mining towns, old Gueules Noires pit railway, subsidence ponds, the spoil heap of the Chabaud-Latour site, etc) line the route.
